

WHAT DOES LIFE CHOICE CHARGE FOR?

Accessing therapy services is much more than simply the face-to-face time with your therapist. A lot of work behind the scenes goes into delivering a therapy service to ensure it is one that is individualised, evidence based, and of the highest standard. As a not-for-profit organisation, this ensures that we are sustainable and can provide a high quality service to our participants. Life Choice takes care to ensure that participant charges align with NDIS guidelines. Some of the things we charge for may include;

Face-to-face sessions with a Clinician

- therapy
- assessment
- information gathering

Telehealth services

- zoom
- telephone

Preparation for therapy sessions

- planning sessions/preparing resources
- post session planning

Correspondence with families

- feedback
- discussions
- planning

Stakeholder collaboration

- Meetings, discussions, case conferences, correspondence with;
- Medical staff
  - Education staff
  - NDIS staff/stakeholders
  - other relevant stakeholders

Documentation

- progress notes
- assessment reports
- goal tracking
- review reports

Assistive Technology

- All aspects involved in the prescription and trial of devices and equipment

Travel

- time taken to travel to provide direct participant service